Destiny Designed by God

by Charlene Baktamarian,

Founder-Executive Producer-Host of "God's View"

Hello, my name is Charlene Baktamarian and I am honored for this opportunity to introduce myself to you. I am the founder, executive producer, and Host of God's View TV Shows which will start airing on Son Broadcasting in May. God's View TV Shows are inspirational, prophetic, TV Shows discussing everyday life issues that will help you overcome fear, depression, anxiety, addictions, and much more!

My heartfelt prayer is that you will watch God's View and the Holy Spirit will touch your life in a powerful way, as He has so many in the past eight years of its broadcast.

Wow! As I look back and ponder on my life's journey, I stand in awe of an awesome God who from the beginning had a plan for my life. A life full of destiny and purpose, predestined for this once broken little girl from Detroit, Michigan, who grew up in an abusive, dysfunctional home believing the lie that I had no purpose or destiny, full of hopelessness! After all, my father reminded me daily of how worthless I was. But God got a hold of my life and I saw through new eyes, I became a new creation as 2 Corinthians 5:17 declares "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

I want to encourage those of you who are reading this right now: We all have a destiny designed by God from the foundations of the earth that the devil sets out to kill, steal and destroy! But, I am living proof of what God can do....this once broken little girl from Detroit, believing I had no purpose or destiny!

Today I'm in Media, preaching the gospel! What? Only God!

I want to leave you with this scripture, Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." I pray the Holy Spirit freshly breathes this scripture over your life today, because you have a great destiny and purpose! Believe it! Don't give up.

Life Without the Lord is Living Death...

by Lana Garner-Willey, Co-host of "God's View"

Greetings from Lana Garner Willey! I am a co-host on God's View TV Show.

Up to age 38, I was in the religion of the month club. I was prosperous by worldly standards, but there was an unexplainable void in my heart. Change came when I was in a hospital room waiting to get a gall bladder operation. There, I invited Jesus into my heart. The room instantly lit up and I was healed. The key to a personal relationship IS the name of JESUS. One night with the King changed everything.

To my astonishment, I found out not only did Jesus die for my sins but He is risen and alive!!! He reveals Himself to whosoever will ask Him. He proved He is God by transforming me from a self-seeker to a woman of God (2 Corinthians 5:17). He has power to set us free from the worst sin and even death. Jesus is one stop shopping!

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit who resides in me and sets me free from fear and worry, and also rescued my teens. He gave me a sound mind, divine health and prospered me. He taught me how to love. After I was widowed, He became a better husband than all the husbands put together. Five years ago, He gave me a new amazing Christian husband.

Life without the Lord is living death. Oh, Jesus, I love you!

Your Legacy!

by Priscilla Pruitt, Co-host of "God's View", Mrs. International

My name is Priscilla Pruitt, I'm one of the co-hosts of the powerful talk show God's View, and the current reigning Mrs. International. I'm proud to be married to the greatest man alive, my husband Sean Pruitt. Together we have 6 incredible children, and as you can see, I love kids!

I consider myself privileged to have been born in this amazing country, a gift I do not take for granted. It is that gift, as well as the many trails I've overcome, that inspired my husband and I to give back.

For the last ten years, my husband and I have been working with kids and youth, building orphanages, coaching, and as youth pastors. Five years ago, we chose to make a "faith move," leaving our friends, family, and everything behind in hopes of changing the suicide rate in the then suicide capital of the US; a small town in Wyoming, lacking any mall, skating rink, bowling alley or any type of rec center.

After spending some time with the kids, we realized they needed an outlet. We decided to give our local kids an opportunity to have a safe, nurturing environment, and began a weekly youth group with over a hundred kids. We feed, mentor and entertain them on a weekly basis, personally covering 100% of the cost.

I also work as international spokesperson for Safe Haven Baby Boxes where I am in charge of all international affairs. Together we are working to rescue newborn babies from abandonment. I also advocate for National Safe Haven Alliance, where I travel and educate all states on their Safe Haven laws.

As it's been said before, "The things you do for yourself are gone when you are gone, but the things you do for others remain as your legacy."

Treasure

by Jennifer Griffin, Co-host of "God's View"

My name is Jennifer Griffin. I am honored to be a co-host on "God's View" TV talk show for the past seven years.

I have been married for 30 years to an incredible man whose name is Joshua and we have four awesome sons. We founded a ministry called The Filling Station located in Wellington, Colorado. This is a place for healing, equipping and launching God's precious children into the destiny God has called them to. We also travel with a prophetic worship ministry, preaching and imparting the power of His presence.

Born into a large family (seven children), I remember wanting to be heard—I was number six. When I would raise my voice for attention, I was told to "shhh". Somehow that translated into my soul as "What you have to say isn't important". I grew to be very shy and inward; you couldn't get me to talk in front of people.

What I didn't know was that God had placed inside of me a "treasure". The interesting thing about the treasure God gives us....it can't be taken away, it can only be buried. God's gifts or "treasures" are irrevocable: Romans 11:20, "For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable". The enemy of our soul comes in at a young age to try to thwart our destiny...BUT GOD!!

God radically saved, healed and delivered me! With that He challenged me to step out of my comfort zone. With each step out, it became easier and easier. Not only has God uncovered my treasure, He has empowered me to help others uncover the treasures within them.

If you feel buried under the enemy's plan—God wants to break you free. He wants you to step into the very destiny He placed you on this earth to accomplish. Don't tolerate the enemy's plans any longer! Step into such a time as this!!

God did not make any two people the same—therefore, your uniqueness is a gift "treasure" that can only be released through you.
