Learning to Love

by Dr. Emmelienne Schreiner, Learning to Love Radio Program on AM730 KDAZ and 96.9FM Monday at 5pm

Having accepted Jesus as her Savior at an early age, Dr. Emmelienne Schreiner found cutting and styling hair one of the easiest and best places to share God's love! After a two-year illness forced her to sell her salons, she headed back to school earning a teaching degree, a master's degree, and Ph D degree in Psychological Foundations of Education. Her non-profit agency, Christian Counseling Inc., grew to a staff of 20 over its 20-year existence as they shared with clients how to love along with introducing many to a relationship with Jesus. Dr. Schreiner created and administered Changing Directions, an addictive disorder program at the Memorial Hospital in Albuquerque as well as being a certified alcohol and drug counselor.

Dr. Schreiner is well qualified to help us through life's challenges, hurts and struggles by guiding us to a deeper relationship with Jesus and a better understanding of God's instructions for life in His Word. We learn to love better by better loving and understanding God. We encourage you to tune in weekly as she addresses topics and areas of life many of us struggle with. Here is an example through a short story she shares...

Anna attended church regularly, had been raised in a Christian home, and felt safe and comfortable with God. Times became tough, and the money no longer lasted between paychecks. She already had two children when she found herself pregnant again and decided to have an abortion. Shortly after the abortion, Anna began to feel uneasy and guilt-ridden when she went to church. As a result, she stopped attending services, including funerals and weddings. Anna couldn't even find her way through the guilt to talk it over with God.

In order to feel better, Anna volunteered to work for a political action group that strove for fewer restrictions on abortions. Little did she realize this was an unconscious attempt to justify her own abortion and to rid herself of the guilt. Not fully understanding grace, she was doomed to self-justify her choice and encouraged others to do the same.

Anna's friend from church noticed how depressed she had become and urged her to see a Christian counselor. After only a few sessions, Anna realized the error of her self-justification, realized she had committed a sin, and that God had redeemed her and still loved her. Only then was she able to fully forgive herself just as God already had. She started to live her life in praise and gratitude for what her Savior had accomplished. Anna stopped seeing the laws that God created as ways to judge his followers. Instead, she began to see them as laws of love that act as safeguards for her behavior and choices. Peace and feelings of well-being flooded her soul as she returned to the church services she had cherished.

Dr. Emmelienne and Co-Host Ted Gonzales will address a variety of topics and questions throughout the program. To submit your topic questions, requests, comments, or praise reports for the Learning to Love program, email these to: learningtolovetoday@gmail.com

by Leticia Chavez-Paulette, "God Answers Prayer" Guest, Executive Director - A Peaceful Habitation

The worst had happened.... I became addicted to cocaine. In order to feed my habit, I started associating with other addicts to commit crimes in order to get money for the drug. This addiction and the bad choices I made landed me in prison for a total of four years.

There are many rules to obey in prison. You obey the authority that is placed over you, no questions asked. Obedience to "man" is something I learned well. While in prison the best happened.... I became a Christian! Now I had a higher and greater authority to obey, Christ!

Prisoners have the opportunity to have paying jobs while serving their time. I was asked to be the Chaplain's clerk; a job that only paid 15 cents an hour. I had also landed a 75 cent an hour job with the Corrections Industry. What was I to do? I prayed about it. I attended church every night asking the Lord to help me with that decision. Every service He told me that He would provide if I obeyed the calling He had placed on my life. Matthew 31-32, Philippians 4:19, John 16:23-24 are some of the promises He made to me, if I obeyed.

Choosing to be obedient to God, I opted for being the Chaplain's clerk for 3.5 years of my 4 years at the NMWCF in Grants, NM. There was nothing I ever needed during my incarceration. I learned to obey Him in all aspects of my life: where I paroled, whom I married, even the job He would blessed me with upon my release.

God told me I was going to work with women upon my release. Even though I did not want to, I obeyed Him and now I serve Him at A Peaceful Habitation, a Christian transitional home for women released from incarceration. Every woman who comes through our doors is encouraged to obey His call on their lives. 2 Chronicles 7:14 says that if we obey Him, humble ourselves and pray, He will hear us!

I obeyed Him because I love Him! Obey God's call on your life now! Obedience is the best blessing in our lives!

Under His Construction

by Sonya Lia Cleveland, President/Founder of Under His Construction
"God Answers Prayer" Guest

Here at Under His Construction, God continues to make Himself known and it is evident that His power and Word direct and instruct us daily; the power of God's Word faithfully speaks.

Under His Construction is a ministry providing housing, education and career development opportunities to the underserved. It is a faith-based, one-year discipleship program housing up to 24 men, women and children. Mornings are devoted to Bible study.

While we manage our day, God orchestrates the path. He speaks boldly to us in His perfect timing. We have the opportunity and privilege to see restoration, healing, recovery, redemption and especially answered prayers in the lives of so many people. He is so faithful to us and His ministry when we obey and seek Him diligently. Here is an example: the other day, our ministry cook comes in and tells me, "Well, this is the last of our crock pots, we'll need to order another". I simply looked at him and said, "Just watch, wait and see what God will do." Sure enough, the very next day, a kind lady came into our thrift store to donate one huge commercial crock pot. There are so many answered prayers we witness daily just like this one.

As they say, "One man's junk is another man's treasure". As the world throws people out as the foolish things of this world, we take them in. 1 Corinthians 1:27 says, "But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty." It is truly an honor to work daily with my partner and husband, Chris Cleveland, in this ministry adventure called Under HIS Construction as we point the way for so many toward God's grace, love and redemption.

One of our favorite ministry verses is Psalm 90:15-17, "God has given us gladness in proportion to our former misery! Replaced the evil years with good. Let us, your servants, see your work again; Let our children see your glory. And may the Lord our God show us His approval and make our efforts successful. Yes, make our efforts successful!"

The Athiest Delusion - November 19th at 9pm (1hr)

Having to prove the existence of God to an athiest is like having to prove the existence of the sun, at noon on a clear day. Yet millions are embracing the foolishness of athiesm. "The Athiest Delusion" pulls back the curtain and reveals what is going on in the minds of those whom deny the obvious. It introduces you to a number of athiests who you will follow as they go where the evidence leads, find a roadblock, and enter into a place of honesty that is rarely seen on film.

Facing The Giants - November 26th at 8pm (2hrs)

Facing the Giants is the story of Grant Taylor, a high school football coach with a mediocre record. After several poor seasons, the Shiloh Eagles consider replacing him as head coach. This is not the only problem Taylor is facing; his car is breaking down, the players' fathers are trying to get him fired, and he discovers that he is the reason that his wife, Brooke, cannot become pregnant. In order to find a solution to these problems, he prays to God for help.

Please join our staff and prayer partners in praying for:

Prayer Requests:

- ❖ Danielle - healing from Lupus
